

Farrow & Ball have been making paint in Dorset, England, one batch at a time, since the company was formed. They remain one of the few companies still producing a full range of traditional and modern paint finishes to the highest quality.

Farrow & Ball now retail from over 28 showrooms in the UK and have a growing international presence throughout Europe, Canada and the USA including showrooms in Paris and New York. Due to ongoing success and growth, they are seeking new showrooms to showcase their exquisite product range.
